THE FOUR MOMENTS of TRUTH™

Trainee Guide

The Four Moments of Truth™ (4MOT™) Overview

Introduction

Your ability to translate learning to performance is directly related to how you prepare for training, engage in the experience and implement what you learned. A fundamental element of your success is the support you receive from your Next-Level Manager (NLM) before, during and after training. The 4MOT™ is a simple, practical process that ensures engagement and alignment between you and your NLM at these critical moments in the learning cycle. Each moment in the 4MOT™ represents a vital stage in the training transfer process where both you and your NLM play a role in how effectively your training will impact your performance. The 4MOT™ Quick Reference Guide (QRG) provides a snapshot of the process and the expectations for your role for each moment of truth.

Situational Performance Ownership™

Program Overview

In this course, participants learn how to apply Situational Leadership® practices to own their performance and play a proactive role in their development, success and engagement. By personalizing the concept of performance ownership and applying the four-step Performance Ownership Process™ to their unique situations, participants are empowered to identify what they need and communicate it to the individual they need to influence to achieve alignment. This course equips participants with the tools and skills to initiate performance discussions and effectively influence and advocate for their needs, in any situation, up and across the organization.

Objectives

Upon completion of this program, participants should be able to apply Situational Leadership® behaviors to:

- Explain the concept of leadership and its importance to successful and effective performance
- Break down tasks to the appropriate level of specificity to gain alignment with a leader
- Objectively assess your Performance Readiness® for a task
- Communicate your performance needs for a task to your leader
